DOAM'S DESK

I had the privilege of receiving training for Next level Leadership, Building powerful Ministry Teams. The training is designed to help Churches see the importance of building ministry teams and how they can accomplish more for God's Kingdom than a committee or just an individual can do. Of course a lot of the characteristics of these teams can be applied to an Association. Such as; (1) Is there a common purpose? (2) Are there clear roles for each person in the team? (3) Is there accepted leadership? (4) Do they have an effective process? (5) Or have solid relationships and excellent communication?

But the one thing that made me think the most is, "Are they going in the same direction or is everybody doing their own thing?" I believe in the autonomy of the local Church but as an Association we may want to look at what we are doing to further God's Work and see if we can team together to accomplish a common goal. I don't have any one thing in mind, but we may want to think about what God would want us to do together. It could mean getting involved with the new Church work in the south area of Cheyenne or help the new Hispanic work in Wheatland get off the ground. Maybe God would want us to organize a food or clothing shelter. Who knows? But I do believe that we can accomplish a lot more for God by working together than separately.

Mark

"Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the Name of The Father, and of The Son, and of The Holy Spirit: teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world." Matt. 28:19-20

GET SEMINARY CREDIT!

We are looking for those interested in teaching classes for Contextualized Leadership Development classes. These classes will be taught under the auspices of Golden Gate Baptist Theological Seminary, near San Francisco, California. Seminary credit may be earned in these classes which can be applied toward a diploma. Persons may also attend just to learn more about what The Bible teaches about certain topics.

Those interested in teaching are invited to meet with Fred Creason and Mark Porter, on March 18, at Yellowstone Baptist Church following the noon Prayer Lunch. Requirements for teachers and starting dates for the classes will be discussed at this meeting.
